

Daily Democrat.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY HARNEY, HUGHES & CO.

Office: East side Third Street, between Market and Jefferson.

LOUISVILLE, KY.
SATURDAY MORNING. JAN. 19, 1861.

Particular Notice!

SEVENTH & EIGHTH WARDS.

Attention!

The Working-Men Will Meet in the Rescue Engine-House, To-Night!

Not at the Court-House!

We have been urgently requested and authorized, by a number of influential Working-men, of the Seventh and Eighth Wards,

To change the place of meeting, from the Court-House, to the Rescue Engine-House.

As fears are entertained that "outsiders" may influence the nomination to be made for the Legislature, and thus pervert the purposes of the movement.

THE SECESSION OF GEORGIA!

Georgia has seceded! The dispatches state that Georgia, the banner Union State of the Southern hills, has gone out of the Union! The revolution seems inevitable!
Pray Heaven Kentucky may be spared the evil result.

The DISPATCHER.—Mr. Moore, of Kentucky, made a patriotic speech in Congress yesterday. The indications are more favorable for an adjustment of the difficulties precipitated by South Carolina. The Secessionists seem to have carried Louisiana, and the commander of the Florida forces has asked for reinforcements to take Fort Pickens. The Virginia House has passed the bill for arming the State. The State of Florida has appointed three delegates to the Southern Congress.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer says: Colonel Hughes, of Pikeville Arsenal, near Baltimore, who is a native of South Carolina, has reached Washington from Charleston. He reports that there is much better feeling in that city, and he believes that the difficulty will be settled without recourse to arms. He says Major Anderson and the people of Charleston have mutual respect for each other. It will be remembered the highest encomium yet passed upon Major Anderson have been by members of the South Carolina Legislature.

STARING AFTRAY.—Last evening about five o'clock three men, named John Kava-nah, Patrick Flynn, and Dennis Whalen, met on Market street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, and resumed a quarrel of several weeks' standing, and which ended by Whalen being stoned in the side by one of the others, both of whom were lodged in jail.
Whalen was removed to his residence at the corner of Tenth and Jefferson streets, where he lay at nine o'clock in a critical situation.

At a late hour last night we were informed that Whalen had died.

SUDEN AND APPALING DEATH.—Thursday evening Mrs. Goff, a lady living on Congress street, between Market and Jefferson, after supper retired to her own bed-room and remained for some time alone. Her granddaughter, after a lapse of time, entered the room and saw her grandmother sitting by the fire. The girl, in alarm, reported the fact to her parents. They at once entered the room, and the lady was found dead. She was perfectly well at supper to all appearances, and the supposition is that she died of heart disease. She will be buried at ten o'clock to-day.

THE GREATEST INSTITUTION OF THE AGE, is Adams Express Company. To their prompt and energetic messengers we are daily under obligations for papers of the latest dates from all quarters of the globe, in advance of Uncle Sam's slow team.

THEATRE.—The benefit of the Misses Webb last night was a triumphant success.

The beauty and fashion of the city were present in full force, and we have never seen a more delighted audience. If those charming young ladies could only stay in Louisville's favorites. The sisters are quite unlike in their styles of acting, but each in her own particular line.

GEORGE RANDOLPH, larceny; penitentiary
one year.

Wm. and Richard Bowes, stealing a cow;
penitentiary each three years.

THE GRAND JURY RETURNED INDICTMENTS
against the following persons: Pat Boyle, alias Pat Thompson, having in his possession a bill of indictment against Ans-Carson, for larceny, was ignored.

THE CASE OF CHARLES CHAMBERS, for larceny, and William Slaten and James Redman, for receiving stolen property, were continued.

JOHN GRAY, charged with manslaughter,
was admitted to bail in $500.

CITY COURT.—Charles Gennett, assault and battery on Joseph Ruhl, case sent before the grand jury. Charles Levering, drunk and disorderly conduct; $100 for two months. Wm. Arthur (f. m. c.) was specified; bail in $100 to answer a charge of larceny. It was ordered that a bench warrant be issued against Margaret Scully.
Those Flanagan and wife, on a peace warrant by Michael Garey; bail in $100 for three months.

THE COURTS.

Jefferson Circuit Court—Criminal Term.— Friday, Jan. 18.—John Bohan, riding in the escape of a felon; penitentiary one year.

Thomas Grant, larceny; discharged.

Christian Schroeder, forgery; penitentiary two years, with a recommendation to mercy.

George Randolph, larceny; penitentiary
one year.

Wm. and Richard Bowes, stealing a cow;
penitentiary each three years.

THE GRAND JURY RETURNED INDICTMENTS
against the following persons: Pat Boyle,
alias Pat Thompson, having in his possession a bill of indictment against Ans-Carson, for larceny, was ignored.

THE CASE OF CHARLES CHAMBERS, for
larceny, and William Slaten and James Red-
man, for receiving stolen property, were
continued.

JOHN GRAY, charged with manslaughter,
was admitted to bail in $500.

CITY COURT.—Charles Gennett, assault
and battery on Joseph Ruhl, case sent before the grand jury. Charles Levering,
drunk and disorderly conduct; $100 for two months. Wm. Arthur (f. m. c.) was specified; bail in $100 to answer a charge of
larceny. It was ordered that a bench
warrant be issued against Margaret Scully.
Those Flanagan and wife, on a peace warrant by Michael Garey; bail in $100 for three months.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND THE UNION.

The position recently taken by the Archbishops of Cincinnati and St. Louis, directly and emphatically in favor of the Union, is one of the significant events of the day. The Catholic influence is one of the great forces of the land, and exerted for the preservation of the Union will make itself felt with a power that calculating politicians will not care to encounter.

To Mr. Overmyer, messenger of Adams & Co.'s Express, we are again indebted for St. Louis papers of yesterday.

CAUTION TO TRAVELERS.—At a hotel in Charleston, South Carolina, last week, a stranger was asked how he arrived. Upon his replying by rail, he was commanded to go a Kettling immediately, and he would be presented with a coat made of the Pickens of a certain reddish substance. He remonstrated and begged to be allowed a few minutes' time to explain. The mob, however, (which was at first but "petty-gre"y) proved impervious as the Twomb to "inexorable logic" and shouted Lam or on. So much for Duck ingham.

TO DAY, the election for Major, for the Enrolled Militia of Jefferson county, takes place. There are many excellent gentlemen proposed for the position in the various districts, who would reflect honor upon their epaulets. In the district formed by the Third and Fourth Wards, several capital officers are running, and among them W. B. Hoke, Esq., who is familiar with military affairs, and thoroughly qualified for the position. We do not detract from anybody's claims when we say that he is our personal choice for Major.—Local.

BENNETT.—About every second case on the Clark county, Indiana, docket is a petition for divorce. Several interesting cases have been gossiped about at Jeffersonville, for some time past.
So large a number of secessionists is a variety even there.

—Hon. J. R. Underwood and Henry Grider, Esq., are mentioned as successors, at Bowlinggreen, of Judge Hines, Representative at large.

The people of Bourbon county heartily approve of the proceedings of the recent Union Convention held in Louisville.

The Paris Citizen opposes the scheme of securing an appropriation for arming the State as a preliminary measure for secession. Fayette county also endorses the Louisville Conventions.

Harrison Thomson, Representative from Clarke, is detained at Jackson, Miss., by the railroad being washed away. He will be his seat as soon as possible.

A poetess of Alabama has written some stut in short meter, which she calls "Alabama's Battle Cry." We have room for only one line, which is as follows:

"Sterling need the advantage."

Perhaps that's as good a way as any to meet the poet, but we needn't like a man, and not like a crab! says the Frankfort Commonwealth.

The Cincinnati papers counsel the appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—By a recent decision of the Circuit Court
of Monroe county, New York, interposers
of bills for and for bills on, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene.

—The Cincinnati papers counsel the
appointment, on the part of Ohio, of Commissioners to confer with the Border Slave States.

—Upton M. Young, Esq., has been admitted to practice as attorney in the Jefferson Circuit Court.

—A new counterfeit is in circulation on
the Bank of Greenfield, Mass. The face of the bill is red, and on the right hand corner of the lower part of the bill is a harvest
scene

